RESIDENTIAL PERMITS

Purpose

8. To provide residents who have limited onsite parking, with an exemption to access parking near their properties where certain sign-posted restrictions are in place.

Maximum Number

9. An eligible residential property, which does not comply with the on-site parking requirements of the State Planning Policy 7.3 Residential Design Codes (R Codes), may apply for a maximum of one residential permit.
10. Each permit may list up to three vehicle registrations, however, the permit may only be used by one vehicle at any one time.
11. Properties are ineligible for a residential permit if:

- a. They comply with the on-site parking requirements of the State Planning Policy 7.3 Residential Design Codes (R Codes); or
- b. The development approval concedes less than the required number of on-site parking bays under the R Codes.

Application Process

12. To obtain a residential permit the applicant must complete the required application form.
13. The application form will not be accepted without payment of the applicable fee.
14. Documents demonstrating that the applicant resides in the Town are required to be provided along with the application form.
15. The application form must include documents demonstrating that the vehicle/s subject to the application are owned by, or exclusively accessible, to the applicant, who is also a resident at the applicable address.

Eligibility Criteria

16. When assessing how many onsite parking bays are available the following criteria for a parking bay will be followed.
17. A standard parking bay on private property is equivalent to a space of 2.4m x 5.4m + an additional 300mm width for any wall or other barrier it abuts.
18. Driveways on private land leading to a carport or garage which are equivalent to the space of a parking bay are considered to be a parking bay for the purposes of assessing the application.
19. Spaces that could reasonably be converted into parking are considered to be a parking bay for the purposes of assessing the application.
20. Parking bays which are being used for purposes other than parking (such as storage of goods) are considered to be a parking bay for the purposes of assessing an application.
21. Residential Permits will not be issued to:
 - a. Heavy or Long Vehicles,
 - b. Caravans,
 - c. Boats,
 - d. Trailers,
 - e. Taxis, or
 - f. Buses,
22. Only residents of the Town of Victoria Park are eligible to apply for a permit.
